

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Andrew Wong is a talented student who has attended the academically selective, Sydney Technical High School for the past six years. He is a candidate for the Higher School Certificate in 2017.

Andrew's conduct is highly satisfactory. He is responsible, respectful and mature. He is trustworthy and reliable and his attendance and punctuality is excellent.

Andrew relates well to both teachers and peers and shows an awareness and consideration for others. He is supportive, caring and is an outstanding role model for others in the school. Andrew is mature in his attitude and application to school life. He is a cooperative student who is a quiet achiever with a determination to succeed.

Andrew is a gifted student who has shown a strong understanding of all areas of his academic program. He displays a good attitude to his academic studies, consistently demonstrating a solid determination and readiness to work hard and with commitment. Andrew is a creative and talented student who has mastered a broad repertoire of technology skills. He enjoys academic challenges, always strives for excellence and works well both with his peers and independently. Andrew has obtained several academic awards including the School Wykeham Intermediate Award (2015, 2016), first in Software Design and Development (2016), first in Information Processes and Technology (HSC, 2015) an accelerated course, and first in Electronics (2014, 2015). He also obtained a perfect score in the National Computer Science School's Grok Programming Competition from 2011 to 2014 and in 2016, as well as a High Distinction in the ICAS Computer Skills competition from 2008 to 2015.

Andrew is a highly regarded member of the school community who has dedicated a lot of time to school and community projects as well as representing the school on a number of occasions. He was elected as a Prefect, and in this leadership role Andrew has demonstrated strong organisational skills, initiative and creativity, and worked hard on behalf of his peers. Andrew is a member of the school Performing Ensembles and Orchestra, and has contributed to the musical life of the school. He has participated in the Beginner, Intermediate, Concert and Stage bands, Guitar Ensemble, Strings Ensemble and Orchestra. Andrew is also the school photographer and has assisted with the organisation the school formal, yearbook and two school dances. A role that is most influential to his character is operating as the co-coordinator of the school's Christian group, SALT, as well as being the 'leader of leaders' for the combined Christian group with St George Girls' High School.

Andrew has volunteered at Sculptures by the Sea and Jericho Road Park Patrol and has worked at Sound and Lighting at Lightsounds and provided service at KFC.

18 September 2017

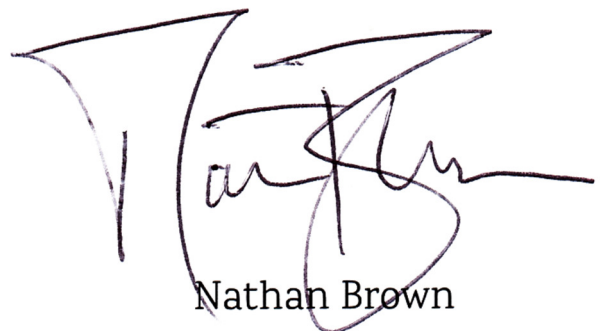

Andrew is a very skilful and learned person, and from a young age, he had a keen interest in understanding how computers and electronic devices worked and why. Additionally, given his credentials as the head of the school's Sound and Lighting crew he has a vast and advanced knowledge of stage productions and its relevant sub fields, which he has utilised for the benefit of the school.

Andrew has successfully represented the school in grade table tennis throughout his time at the school and has continually displayed an attitude of fair play.

We have no hesitation in recommending Andrew to any prospective employer or organisation as he will make a valuable contribution to any work environment. We wish him every success in his future.

A blue ink signature, appearing to read 'J Lyons', written in a cursive style.

Jacqueline Lyons
Principal, MACEL

A blue ink signature, appearing to read 'Nathan Brown', written in a cursive style.

Nathan Brown
Year 12 Adviser

18 September 2017